

About the Organization:

Sol's ARC is a registered charitable trust that has been working in the field of inclusive education since the past 18 years. We build inclusive learning solutions from education to employment to improve learning and employment outcomes for the most vulnerable children in India. Inclusion is about embracing all, it is not confined to the disabled, but also means non-exclusion. Children who are nonexcluded are vulnerable due to various factors like gender, differently abled, economically disadvantaged, internally displaced persons and refugees, minority groups, the invisible.

Our vision is "Every last Child Learns"

We believe in a country like India inclusive solutions will solve critical issues of education and employment and nudge us closer to the achievement of the sustainable development goals.

We are looking for a dynamic and enthusiastic individual who loves to discover the process of learning and is interested in developing inclusive pedagogy and learning content based on principles of Universal Design.

If this is YOU, join our spirited team in fulfilling our vision of No child left behind and impacting the education sector at scale.
